

I urge the FCC to stop their plans to end critical safeguards designed to help ensure diversity of media ownership. Under the new plans, there will inevitably be fewer owners of networks, stations, and newspapers nationwide. I urge the FCC to delay the June 2nd vote deadline and ensure there are more public hearings to discuss how such proposals will affect the nation. I personally oppose these new plans. The plans are bad for competition, the First Amendment and democracy.